The King's Stature.

King Edward is not so tall as many people imagine and whenever his majesty is photographed in a group he is invariably put to stand on some small eminence, such as a step, in order that he may compare as well as possible with those about him. In his stockings he is just five feet seven inches. His majesty wears boots with high heels, and his total height as he walks is five feet eight inches.—London News.

Not Going Abroad.

Steamship agents are not happy because the spring bookings for Europe are not so large as last year, and they do not anticipate any great increase in westward passengers because of the St. Louis exposition. Last year 161,438 cabin passengers were recorded as either coming from or going to Europe. There were 150,000 in 1899, but in 1898 the number was only 80,586.

France's Worst Enemy.

Dr. Jaques Bertillon, the famous chief of the statistical bureau of Paris, has written a volume entitled "Alcoholism and the Way to Fight It." Drink he declares, is likely to prove the ruin of the French race, unless something is done to overcome the habit.

"Straight Goods."

Thirty-four anacondas have been born at the snake house of the New York Zoo. The keeper who reported this is known to be a teetotaler, so that the rest of the New Yorkers are reasonably certain they are real snakes.—Indianapolis Journal.

Nature Did It.

Barnes—Howes was quite indignant when he heard what you was about. He says you can't make a fool of him. Shedd—Of course not; but I can direct public attention to what is already in existence.—Boston Transcript.

There is a difference between doing good and making good.—Puck.

BOTH JAWS SHOT AWAY

Still a Successful Business Man.

A man who had both jaws shot away had trouble eating ordinary food but found a food-drink that supplies the nutriment needed. He says:

"I have been an invalid since the siege of Vicksburg, in 1866, where I was wounded by a Minnie ball passing through my head and causing the entire loss of my jaws. I was a drummer boy and at the time was leading a skirmish line, carrying a gun. Since that time I have been awarded the medal of honor from the Congress of the United States for gallantry on the field.

"The consequences of my wound were dyspepsia in its most aggravated form and I finally proved ordinary coffee was very hard on my stomach so I tried Postum and got better. Then I tried common coffee again and got worse. I did this several times and finally as Postum helped me every time I continued to use it, and how often I think that if the Government had issued Postum to us in the Army how much better it would have been for the soldier boys than coffee.

"Coffee constipates me and Postum does not; coffee makes me spit up my food, Postum does not; coffee keeps me awake nights, Postum does not. There is no doubt coffee is too much of a stimulant for most people and is the cause of nearly all the constipation.

"This is my experience and you are at liberty to use my name." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

DULL MURMURINGS.

Sapley—Politics is a tewwible thing, old chappie. Just because Willie Many-pants is winning for office they're beginning to tell howwible stories about his early career.

Askins—Shocking! Sapley—Yaas, they whisper that he once wore a turn-down collar with a dwess suit!—Chicago Daily News.

Pa's Snore.

My pa's got somepin' in his nose that's fastened there to stay. That all the neighbors wishes he would lose or give away. Some sort o' bellerin' affair, like bulls has in their throats. Or like a big bass horn, except it never plays no notes. —Chicago Journal.

ARMLESS WONDER.

Miss Pert—Don't you know you remind me of the Venus de Milo? Mr. Slowboy—But she didn't have any arms. Miss Pert—I know.—Chicago Chronicle.

A Fine Distinction.

"I didn't think you would write an anonymous letter!" "I didn't," was the indignant reply. "But you didn't sign your name to it." "No. But I signed the name of one of the neighbors."—Washington Star.

How They Do It.

The sewing circle weekly meets. The savages to gown. And while they dress the heathen up. They dress their neighbors down. —Puck.

Husband—If you are not going to use that gown, why don't you give it to the cook? Wife—Oh, no! It's out of style.—Brooklyn Life.

Wonderful Intuition.

"I flatter myself," said the city chap, "that I can tell what a man is by his walk. Now, this dignified-looking individual coming down the street is undoubtedly a leader of men."

"That's right," rejoined the village landlord. "He's the drum major of our brass band."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Wise Man Talks.

Prof. Borem—Yes, my dear madam, the baneful habit of sweets and tobacco is gradually affecting and rendering smaller the teeth of the coming generations. More than this—in the course of reactionary evolution, if I may so term it, we shall undoubtedly have children born without teeth at all.—Tit-Bits.

PROFESSIONAL COURTESY.

"After I told my best story to-night," says the monologist, "a lady in one of the boxes threw this magnificent bouquet to me." "What kind of flowers are they? Immortelles?" asked the soubrette.—Chicago Tribune.

Not the Same.

"Haven't I seen you at this bar before?" said the judge, sternly, frowning over his glasses. "Not at this bar, judge," said the prisoner, with a smile peculiar to a bartender.—Yonkers Statesman.

PITY THE POOR FELLOW.

"Did you sound papa this afternoon about our marriage?" "Yes; and when I struck the bottom step it sounded pretty loud, too."—Chicago Chronicle.

Silenced Again.

"Have a care, madam," said Mr. Meeker, summoning up a little spunk. "The worm will turn!" "Did you ever know the worm to hurt anybody when it turned?" calmly asked his wife.—Chicago Tribune.

Willing to Oblige.

Geraldine—Why do you always throw kisses to me when you go by the house? Gerald—I'll bring them to you, if you'd rather I would.—Brooklyn Life.

An Appropriate Name.

"Why do you call your horse 'Favor'?" asked the inquisitive party. "Because," explained the owner, "he requires so much currying."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

He Has It Removed.

"They say," remarked the Ludlow youth, "that a wise man never stumbles over the same stone twice." "That's right," rejoined the Cumminsville sage. "When he passes that way again it isn't there."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Of No Importance.

"And were you ever engaged before, dearest?" he asked. "Oh, never in earnest," she replied. "Only occasionally, you know, at the summer resorts and winter resorts."—Chicago Post.

NOTHING BUT CHICKENS.

He Had a Bad Cough, But That, He Said, Was All He Raised.

Some amusing incidents occur at the free dispensary of the different hospitals in town, often because the poor patients fail to understand the terms used by the doctors. The following incident occurred at the University hospital the other day, and illustrates the point in question, relates the Philadelphia Telegraph.

A man came in who the doctor thought was suffering from beginning pneumonia, so after getting his name and address and other necessary data, he asked the patient if he had a chill.

"Yes, a very bad chill yesterday," came the answer.

"Do you cough much?" asked the doctor. "Yes, some," replied the patient, with a practical illustration.

"Do you raise anything?" was the next question.

The man hesitated a moment, then answered, innocently: "Well, only a few chickens."

DOCTOR ADVOCATED OPERATION—PE-RU-NA MADE KNIFE UNNECESSARY.

MRS. EVA BARTHO, 133 East 13th St., New York City, N. Y., writes: "I suffered for three years with leucorrhoea and ulceration of the womb. The doctor advocated an operation which I dreaded very much, and strongly objected to go under it. Now I am a changed woman. Peruna cured me; it took nine bottles, but I felt so much improved I kept taking it, as I dreaded an operation so much. I am to-day in perfect health and have not felt so well for fifteen years."—Mrs. Eva Bartho.

Mrs. Senator Roach, of Larimore, N. Dak.; Mrs. Senator Warren, of Cheyenne, Wyo.; Belva Lockwood and Mrs. General Longstreet, of Washington, D. C., are among the prominent ladies who indorse Peruna.

Miss Helen Rolof, Kankana, Wis., writes: "Several times during the past two years or more my system has been greatly in need of a tonic, and at those times Peruna has been of great help in building up the system, restoring my appetite and securing restful sleep."—Helen Rolof.

Miss Muriel Armitage, 36 Greenwood Ave., Detroit, Mich., District Organizer of the Royal Templars of Temperance, writes as follows:

"I suffered for five years with uterine irregularities, which brought on hysteria and made me a physical wreck. I tried doctors from the different schools of medicine, but without any perceptible change in my condition. In my despair I called on an old nurse, who advised me to try Peruna, and promised good results if I would persist and take it regularly. I kept this up for six months, and steadily gained strength and health, and when I had used fifteen bottles I considered myself entirely cured. I am a grateful, happy woman to-day."—Miss Muriel Armitage.

Miss Lucy M. Riley, 33 Davenport St., Cleveland, Ohio, writes:

"I wish to add my indorsement to thousands of other women who have been cured through the use of Peruna. I suffered for five years with severe backache, and when weary or worried

THE ROSEBUD INDIAN RESERVATION.

382,000 Acres of Fertile and Well Watered Lands Open to Settlement.

Some two years ago the Chicago & North-Western R'y built their Verdigris & Bonesteel line to the eastern border of the Rosebud Indian Reservation, thus securing the only direct line from Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Sioux City, Omaha and other points in the west to the fertile region which is now to be thrown open to settlement under the United States Homestead laws.

Under President Roosevelt's proclamation United States Registry Land Offices are to be opened July 5th at Yankton, Fairfax and Bonesteel, S. D., for the registration of applicants for these lands. The registration books will remain open until July 23d, and commencing July 28th, drawings will take place, to determine the order in which the applicants will be permitted to make final entry and settlement. The final entry begins at Bonesteel, August 8th. No one is permitted to register or make entry to land by mail, but must be personally present at one of the three points named for registration and at Bonesteel for final entry.

The lands are well watered by the Missouri, Niobrara and White rivers and are remarkably fertile, situated in the midst of the great corn belt of the Missouri Valley, where similar land is worth from $20 to $50 an acre. With an altitude of about 2,200 feet, they are in a region which cannot be excelled for healthfulness.

A heavy influx of people is looked for at these points of registration, and everything possible is being done by the Northern Western Line to spread broadcast all information that is of interest to applicants for these lands.

Complete maps and folders have been issued and are being distributed free on application to the representatives of the Passenger Department.

MRS. EVA BARTHO.

In the least I had prolonged headache. I am now in perfect health, enjoy life and have neither an ache or pain, thanks to Peruna."—Lucy M. Riley.

It is no longer a question as to whether Peruna can be relied on to cure all such cases. During the many years in which Peruna has been put to test in all forms and stages of acute and chronic catarrh no one year has put this remedy to greater test than the past year.

If all the women who are suffering with any form of female weakness would write to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, and give him a complete description of their symptoms and the peculiarities of their troubles, he will immediately reply with complete directions for treatment, free of charge.
